

Instructional Coach

ABOUT AIM HIGH

At Aim High, students unlock their limitless potential by participating in a multi-year summer joyful, enrichment program that empowers middle school students navigating systemic barriers, igniting their love of learning and yielding real results—97% of Aim High alumni graduate high school and go on to college. Grounded in the Aim High CORE Values (Community, Opportunity, Respect, and High Expectations), every student feels seen and supported. Aim High gives students the confidence to succeed in high school and beyond. Aim High also fosters a supportive professional community where educators - from aspiring to experienced - grow personally and professionally. For more about Aim High, please visit www.aimhigh.org.

Position Summary

Instructional Coaches (ICs) are the academic leaders of our Aim High sites. They establish a learning environment in which all students: have positive relationships with teachers and feel a sense of belonging; gain and strengthen the skills to become independent learners; and develop a lifelong love of learning. Aim High ICs communicate Aim High's teaching and learning objectives by leading professional development sessions and connecting teachers with Aim High curriculum materials. ICs coach Lead Teachers, Assistant Teachers, and High School Instructional Assistants so that they have a safe space to grow as educators and hone new skills and strategies. They act as mentors and role models to ensure that all Aim High learning spaces are grounded in culturally responsive pedagogy and restorative practices.

This is a six-week position: one week of faculty training and five weeks supporting the learning of middle school students. ICs participate in online training before the start of the summer program.

Duties and Responsibilities

Coaching and Supporting Faculty and Staff

- Lead workshops for campus faculty.
- Assist teachers in setting and working towards meaningful goals.
- Become familiar with all Aim High core curriculum and resources on Aim High's online Teacher Center.
- Distribute Aim High curriculum materials and assist teachers with accessing resources on Aim High's online Teacher Center.
- Conduct formal and informal observations, and provide feedback and support to teachers and teaching teams.
- Support Assistant Teachers' growth as educators through weekly coaching meetings and leading professional development sessions geared towards aspiring and novice teachers.
- Support English Language Learners and students with learning differences by sharing resources with teachers, as well as developing individualized learning plans (as needed).

As part of the Site Leadership Team

- Collaborate with Site Directors to ensure effective learning experiences for all students.
- Participate in monitoring daily functions of the day with the leadership team: monitor recess, lunch, and dismissal to ensure all students create a safe environment, and support cultural days and field trips.
- Collaborate and problem-solve with Instructional Coaches across sites through weekly virtual meetings and sharing resources.
